

CZ 600 LUX .308WIN. The most recent iteration of CZ's iconic centerfire hunting rifle is the 600 LUX. It includes a classic European-style stock, crafted from premium walnut. Dark brown laminated wood makes up its ornamental forend. Checkered fish scale grips provide dependable and comfortable handling. Additionally, the bolt handle knob is made of walnut. Five of the most common hunting calibres, ranging from 223 Remington to 300 Winchester Magellan, are offered for this type. Its cold hammer forged barrel is threaded (a thread protector is supplied), and its front and rear sights are mechanical with fibre optic technology.
